

REFEREES WANTED

St. George Football Referees Association is offering a final opportunity for members of the football community to complete a 'referee's course' prior to the commencement of the 2012 season.

The course is targeted at adult participants (over the age of 18) however, there are some limited places for prospective junior members who turn 14 years of age prior to 1st April, 2012.

The course is a full Nationally based accreditation and participants would be in a position to join the referee's association, should they wish, upon successfully completing the course.

The course is open to both males and females and retired, senior players are more than welcome.

Consider accepting this exciting challenge and become a fully qualified football referee.
